Resident Spotlight

Tamirra Brown

HAC would like to congratulate Tamirra Brown on all her accomplishments and achievements!

Tamirra Brown is a single mother of a teenage son and has been a resident in housing for 8 years! She is currently attending Gateway Community College for business management and Organizational Leadership. She is also the new secretary of the Resident Council in Latonia Terrace. Tamirra was a graduate of the S.E.E.D Program in 2023, in which led her to enroll in post-secondary college. Tamirra has an Ambition to be an entrepreneur where she can open an art center and a safe creative space for her community.

Congratulations Tamirra on all of your current and future endeavors!

HAC is so proud of you!

4th and 5th graders & families are invited to join us for our:

Lights On Afterschool, TRAK Club Open House on October 24th from 3:30-5 in the Latonia Terrace Rec Room!

4th and 5th graders will get to participate in TRAK Club for the day while parents/guardians get to see TRAK Club in action and learn about what we've been busy with this year. Come see what our TRAK Club participants do each week and what YOU can be doing as a 6th-8th grader! Snacks and Activities provided!

Trick or treating in Covington will be from 6pm-8pm on Thursday, October 31st.
